

Adam Eventov

Race, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Commissioner

City of Temecula

Biography:

Adam Eventov has been a resident of Temecula since April 1, 1998. He lives in Temecula with his wife Kristen, who has taught elementary school in the Temecula school district for more than 20 years. Their son Ian recently graduated from Temecula Valley High School and now attends the University of Colorado Boulder. Their daughter Maddie graduated from Chaparral High School and is a recent graduate of UC Santa Barbara, where she lives and works.

Adam is the Public Affairs Manager for SoCalGas serving Southwest Riverside County. Before joining the company, Adam served as the Government Affairs Manager for the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians, where he worked with tribal leadership and staff on a variety of environmental, gaming, and local government affairs issues.

Adam has worked as a public relations consultant, helping to secure the development of more than 4 billion dollars and more than 2 gigawatts of solar energy, natural gas, and home development projects. He holds a Master's degree in Journalism from California State University, Fullerton and a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the University of Southern California. During his time as a journalist, Adam was a business reporter and editor for several Inland Empire newspapers covering economic development, tourism, logistics, the wine industry, energy, transportation, and real estate development.

Currently, Adam serves as a board member for the Mt. San Jacinto College Foundation and holds various leadership roles with the Temecula Valley, Moreno Valley, Hemet-San Jacinto Valley, Lake Elsinore and Beaumont chambers of commerce. He is an honorary Lions Club member, is Secretary of the Hemet-San Jacinto Valley Transportation Now Committee and is a member of the Menifee Rotary Club. He was a founding member of the Race, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Committee of the Temecula Valley Chamber and is a member of the Multicultural Network Committee of the Hemet-San Jacinto Chamber of Commerce.
