Race, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Commissioner

City of Temecula

Biography:

Jackie Steed has lived and worked in Temecula with her husband Jeff and two boys since 2001. From 2006 to 2011, she was a small business owner and served on the Board of the Temecula Chamber of Commerce for two years before taking some time out to return to her homeland of Ireland. Jackie returned to Temecula in July of 2012 simply because of her love for the Temecula area.

Jackie currently sits on the board of the Temecula Valley Chamber of Commerce and Habitat for Humanity Inland Valley. Jackie has volunteered and supported many local non-profits over the last 15 years including: Safe, Susan G Komen, Michelle's Place, Our Nicholas Foundation and Oak Grove—to name a few. Jackie has been in the real estate industry since 2014, and in 2018 she became a United States Citizen. Her love of the Temecula Valley inspires her to stay involved and continue to serve her community.
